

MBCEA Carolinas

Standards of Conduct

As a member of the MBCEA Carolinas, I pledge myself to:

Maintain the highest level of ethics within the industry.

Maintain loyalty to the Association and pursue its objectives in ways that are consistent with the public interest.

Recognize and discharge my responsibility to uphold all laws and regulations relating to the industries' policies and activities.

Strive for excellence in all aspects of the management of my business.

Use only legal and ethical means in all business activities.

Cooperate in every reasonable and proper way with other contractors and erectors and to work with them in the advancement of the profession of pre-engineered buildings.

Encourage and aid in the education and training of field employees and others in our industry.

This Code of Standards of Conduct for members of the MBCEA Carolinas has been adopted to promote and maintain the highest standards of the industry and personal conduct amongst its members.

Adherence to these standards is required for membership in the Association and serves to assure public confidence in the integrity and service of all metal building contractors and erectors.

Adopted: September 26, 2002
